Punta Mita, Mexico

stregis.com/puntamita

Located on the Punta Mita peninsula about a 45-minute drive from Puerto Vallarta, the St. Regis is a sprawling resort of beautifully appointed casitas, peaceful pools and top-notch restaurants. Each room has 24-hour butler service to secure dinner reservations, set a tee time, reserve your favorite poolside lounge or treatment at Remède Spa and schedule your surf lessons at nearby hippy enclave Sayulita. Breakfast at Las Mariatas each morning is a must (order the Nogal juice, a mix of cactus, orange, celery, spinach and pineapple juices) and dine at Carolina, the only AAA Five Diamond restaurant on the peninsula.

Perched atop a spectacular cliff overlooking the Caribbean Sea, this luxe boutique resort opened just over a year ago. It's comprised of two villas and two bungalows — secluded and private enough for the ultimate romantic post-nuptial retreat. Stay in the Zabuco one-bedroom Honeymoon Villa with private pool, deck and covered terrace, and fully appointed kitchen. Have your fridge stocked prior to arrival, and schedule the cooking service at the property to deliver two meals per day to your minimalist suite.
